

PROPOSALS.

THE friends of primitive christianity propose publishing in the town of Columbus, Mississippi, a semi-monthly, to be called THE DISCIPLE.

Devoted to the interests of the christian institution, in its Apostolic purity and primitive simplicity;—having in view no design, other than the best interest of the community, and the honor of God.

Upon such a subject, guided by such motives, we cannot but indulge ardently, the hope of great and good success;—at the same time promising to use our best exertions to secure, in an eminent degree, this so desirable an object.

The main design of this periodical is to disseminate biblical intelligence in an unvarnished, though chaste and respectable style, through this State and sister States; as far as it may be by the liberality of the public, permitted to wield an influence.

The following items may be in brief noted, as prospectively holding a claim upon our labours, and entitled to timely attention and full and free discussion:

1st Simple expositions of the religion of Christ as taught by the Apostles.

All important foreign and domestic intelligence of a religious character, will receive from us merited attention.

In conclusion, we respectfully solicit the aid of all the brethren and friends, who may feel competent and inclined to favor this laudable project. Let your communications be short & pithy.

All communications for this work addressed post paid to "The Disciple, Columbus Miss., will meet with prompt attention.

Terms $1 50 to be paid upon receipt of the first number.

Usual per centum allowed to agents.

GREAT NATIONAL WORK.

TAPPAN & DENNET,

No. 114 Washington St. Boston Mas.

PROPOSES to publish by subscription, in fourteen monthly numbers, at the low price of 25 cents each No.

The Life of Washington, by JARED SPARKS. Each number to contain between forty and fifty pages, and to be embellished with the following fine steel and copper plate engravings.

1. Portrait of Washington at 40, by Peal. 2. Portrait of Mrs. Washington at 40, by Wollaston. 3. View of Mount Vernon. 4. Battle of Braddock's defeat. 5. Head quarters at Cambridge. 6. Plan of Boston and environs. 7. Head quarters at Morristown. 8. Head quarters at Newburg. 9. Plan of farms at Mount Vernon. 10. Battle of Brandywine. 11. Portrait of Washington, by Stuart. 12. Encampment at Valley Forge. 13. Battle of Germantown. 14. Fac-simile of Washington's hand writing.

The Portraits were copied from the original paintings. The plans, sketches and engravings, have been copied from the best drawings, as well from French and English as American.—Special aid was derived from a series of manuscript drawings in the possession of Gen. La Fayette, which are executed with scientific accuracy & beauty.

The well known ability of the author, the abundant means which he possesses, viz:—More than two hundred folio volumes of the original manuscript purchased by Congress, ten years' researches in the public offices in London, Paris, Washington, and all the States which formed the confederacy during the revolution, as well as the access he has gained to valuable private papers in different parts of the country, have brought into his hands a mass of materials; original and important in their character, which we trust will be found to have contributed essential aid in enabling him to execute with more accuracy and completeness his main purpose, and thus to have compensated in some degree for the time and labor they have cost. Its publication not only involved extended and laborious research on the part of the editor, but great pecuniary responsibility on the part of the publishers.

The price of this work is less, when the execution is considered, than any other publication in Europe or America. The investments and expenditures connected with the undertaking, are much greater than usually attending such publication; and it will be apparent that the publishers must rely on an extensive sale for their remuneration.

The engravings alone, are thought by many to be worth the whole cost of the work. To non subscribers the price will be much enhanced.

Many testimonials of unqualified approbation might be adduced from gentlemen who have examined the work, but the publishers conceive it unnecessary. Letters have been received from many distinguished persons, concurring in the opinion that the work is in every respect richly deserving public patronage.

Among the many who have given the work the aid of their subscriptions and influence, are the following gentlemen, viz:

Hon. J. Q. Adams, Hon. M. Van Buren, Hon. J. Pickens, Hon. J. Burnet, of Ohio, J. Quincy, F. W. Land, D. D., Rev. M. Stewart, R. G. Shaw, Esq., Boston, H. Lee, Esq. Rt. Rev. Bishop Doane, Hon. J. D. Wolf, R. I., Rt. Rev. Bishop Brownwell, Hon. I. Bates, Hon. H. Everett, Vt. Hon. S. Longfellow, Me., J. Seawell Jones, N. C., Hon. J. Sargeant, Pa., Hon. S. Snyder, Pa., Hon. L. Lincoln, Hon. S. Van Rensselaer, N. Y. Hon. W. L. Marcy, N. Y. Hon. W. W. Pope, Ky., Hon. L. W. Tazewell, Va. Hon. T. Burges, R. I. Hon. W. H. Ashley, Mo., Hon. D. Webster, Hon. Ab. Lawrence, Hon. J. Story, Hon. E. Everett, C. Jackson, Hon. L. Shaw, S. T. Armstrong, W. B. Calhoun, J. C. Warren, M. D. J. Jackson, M. D. J. Davis, Worcester, Hon. C. Johnson, Va.

Editors and proprietors who will insert the above six weeks, shall have a copy of the work for so doing.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WATCHMAN OF THE GULF.

(Formerly the Florida Journal)

IN appealing to the public for support, it is due to it, as well as to ourselves, to state the ground which we now occupy. With due courtesy to the opinions of others, we must avail ourselves of the right to maintain our own. Our political creed is a short one and easily understood.

Our paper will to the fullest support the doctrine of State Rights by which we mean, a strict adherence to the letter of the Constitution.

We are opposed to internal improvement by the General Government.

We are opposed to the distribution of the proceeds of the public Lands among the States.

We are opposed to excessive Legislation, either by the States or General Government.

In short we are apposed to the exercise of any incidental power derived from a liberal construction of the Federal Constitution; admitting no powers except those absolutely necessary to carry out express grants, contained in that instrument which makes us a nation.

We are in favor of a Tariff for revenue purposes without discriminating duties.

We are in favor of an economical administration of the Government, & no change of the Constitution.

With these views, we support the claims of JOHN C. CALHOUN of S. Ca., for President, subject to the decision of a National Convention.

TERMS.—The Watchman of the Gulf will be published every Saturday (after the 1st of August) on a super royal sheet, at $3 per annum, invariably in advance, by W. T. Robinson, to whom all letters must be addressed and with whom all business of the office must be transacted.

PORTRAIT OF THE AUTHOR OF "CHARCOAL SKETCHES."

IN our next we shall give a Portrait of JOSEPH C. NEAL, Esq., Author of "Charcoal Sketches," etc. which has been pronounced by the most competent judges among his generous friends and admirers, "the most capital likeness ever engraved." It seems to speak from the paper.

Are subscribers aware that Graham's Magazine contains the only Portrait Gallery of the Literary Ladies and Gentlemen of the United States? This is a valuable feature. We give more elegant steel and mezzotint engravings in a year than any other monthly work, and the colored Fashions and colored Flowers in addition. We should like these facts noticed.

Every thing we undertake is done thoroughly and fully. It will be found that the sketch by Mr. Neal is accompanied by a fine copper-plate illustration. Is it so with those who copy our movements? GEORGE R. GRAHAM.

FOR 1844.

NEW GENNESEE FARMER VOL. V.

THE Fifth Volume of this Paper will commence with January, 1844. It will be continued of the same size and at the same price as at present—8 large pages monthly, with 2 or more numbers of 16 pages.

ONLY FIFTY CENTS A YEAR—(in advance.)

Five numbers of the volume for 1843 are of double size, and the October number contains a full account of the great Agricultural Fair at Rochester, including the Reports and Remarks of the awarding Committees, Annual address, speeches of several other gentlemen, Complete Sets of the volume for 1843, and that for 1844, will be furnished for the small sum of $1.

The character of the New Gennesee Farmer is well known. Its object is, to diffuse such information as will promote the interests of the Farming Community—especially in Western New York, Ohio, and other grain-growing regions. The writers for its pages are numerous and most of them well known as practical farmers; and the Editor, Mr. Bateham, has devoted his whole life to the study and practice of Agriculture and Horticulture.

The propriety will spare no reasonable pains or expense, on their part, to make the paper worthy of extensive patronage; and they respectfully solicit the former friends of the paper, and the friends of agriculture generally, to aid in extending its circulation.

Postmasters and Agents will be entitled to every 5th copy gratis.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR NOVEMBER,

A Particular Number.

JOSEPH C. NEAL, ESQ.,

Author of "CHARCOAL SKETCHES, &c. &c."

Will contribute one of the best articles for the November No. of GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

It is unnecessary for us to go into detail touching the merits of this gentleman. There has perhaps no work ever been published in this country, from which extracts have been so frequently made, as the far-famed Charcoal Sketches.

The Proprietor of The Lady's Book was the original publisher of these Sketches, and can vouch for their popularity. Besides Mr. Neal, arrangements have been made with all the contributors of any repute in this country, whose contributions will regularly appear in the Book.

The embellishments of the number will be numerous, at least of different kinds. One particularly A Novelty, a Steel Engraving with an arabesque border, never before attempted in this country, and which gave so much eclat to Lockhart's Spanish Ballads.

THE PLATE OF FASHIONS

Anticipates all others, as we have received from Paris and London the plates containing the latest fashions for winter cloaks, beautifully coloured. This alone for the ladies makes the number invaluable.

Are the public aware that we never omit our fashion plates? This should be looked to when subscribing for a fashionable magazine. They are in every number, and coloured at great expense.

It is pleasant to look back upon our long career, and reflect upon the millions that have received instruction and amusement from our work. It is also gratifying to know that we have in no instance ever published a line that would give offence, and have never excited the ire of our brethren of the press. This shall be our future course.

The Embellishments of Godey's Lady's Book are of the first class, both for selection of subject and skill in engraving. They consist of Mezzotints, and colored plates, and always engraved by the first artists. We continue to have the largest circulation of any magazine ever published, and we presume the course we have always followed is the reason.
